

FOR RANKED PLAYERS COMPETING ACROSS OCEANIA

Design our logo, win $200

Pokémon Parents Oceania needs a logo, and we would rather have one made by a kid who plays than by an agency. Draw it, design it, or generate it. If yours wins, it goes on the site for everyone to see.

Who can enter: players who have scored championship points in this season's rankings or last season's, and who compete in Oceania. We check both before a prize is paid.

AUD $200

to the winner

5 x $20

for the runners-up

On the site

the winner goes live on pokeparents.org, credited by name

YOUR LOGO MUST CONTAIN THESE WORDS

Pokemon Parents Oceania

Spelled exactly like that. Everything else is up to you.

THREE THINGS THAT MAKE A LOGO WORK

It has to read small

Most people will see it the size of a thumbnail on a phone. Squint at yours and see if it still makes sense.

Simple beats busy

Two or three colours and one clear idea will beat a crowded drawing every time.

Try it in black and white

A good logo still works with the colour taken out, because one day it will be printed that way.

ENTRIES CLOSE

Wednesday 7 October 2026

The week after the Brisbane Regional,
once everyone is home

ENTER HERE

pokeparents.org/logo

A parent or guardian uploads the entry. Scan the code or type the address.
The rules are overleaf, and rule three is the one most entries get wrong.

The rules

1 Oceania players only

For kids who actually compete here. The player must have scored championship points in this season's Play! Pokémon rankings or last season's, and must play in Oceania: Australia, New Zealand or another country in the same rating zone. A parent or guardian enters on their behalf, because we collect nothing directly from children. We check both before a prize is paid.

3 Nothing you do not own

Apart from the words we have asked you to put in, nothing you do not own. A Poké Ball is fine. Pokémon characters are not, and neither are official logos, other people's artwork, or fonts you are not allowed to use. Everything else has to be your own work. This is the rule most entries get wrong, so read it twice.

5 Sending it in gives us the logo

If you enter, you give Pokémon Parents Oceania permission to use your logo for anything, anywhere, for good. You keep the right to say you made it, and we will credit the winner by name.

2 It must say "Pokemon Parents Oceania"

Those exact words have to appear in the logo. Spelling counts. Everything else about it is up to you.

4 You can use AI

Use whatever tools you like, including AI image tools. Rule three still applies to what comes out of them, and AI tools are very willing to draw Pokémon characters, so check your output before you send it.

6 One vote each

Every entry goes up on our Discord and the community votes. One vote per parent or player. The most votes wins.

How to enter

1

Check the player can enter: ranking points this season or last, playing in Oceania.

2

Draw it, design it, or generate it. Any tool, any style, as long as it is your own work.

3

Check it says "Pokemon Parents Oceania" and contains nothing you do not own.

4

A parent or guardian uploads it on this page before the deadline.

5

We put every entry on Discord and the community votes.

How the winner is chosen

Every entry goes up on our Discord and the community votes, one vote per parent or player. The most votes wins. We announce it around the Brisbane Regional Championships on 26 and 27 September 2026 at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre. Prize money is paid to the parent or guardian who entered.

pokeparents.org/logo poke@anaboo.ai

Pokémon Parents Oceania is an independent community resource for parents. We are not affiliated with, endorsed by, or sponsored by The Pokémon Company, Nintendo, Game Freak or Creatures. Pokémon and all related names are trademarks of their owners. We collect nothing directly from children, which is why a parent or guardian sends the entry in. How we look after your information is set out at pokeparents.org/safe.